

EUROGIN 2010

Cervical Cancer Prevention:

20 Years of Progress and a Path to the Future

February 17-20, 2010, Grimaldi Forum – Monte-Carlo (Monaco)

SPONSORSHIP / EXHIBITORS' INFORMATION

GENERAL

For the EUROGIN 2010 congress, we expect more than 2,500 participants from all over the world. Most are clinicians specializing in gynecology, oncology and cytopathology,

The 4-day meeting will encompass a one-day training course, plenary sessions, scientific sessions, clinical sessions and satellite symposia, such as to cover all up-to-date information on HPV infection and cervical cancer prevention. Educational issues related to women's health will also be in the focus of the program.

The meeting will offer an excellent opportunity to promote products and services related to women's health in general and cervical cancer prevention in particular, taking into account that many international leaders and health policy decision makers will attend. Therefore, the event is bound to be a key element for your marketing strategy.
