

Access to Monte-Carlo (Monaco)

By plane

Nice Côte d'Azur International Airport, located 22 kilometers from Monte Carlo, links the Principality to major cities of the world. The airport is connected to 98 major cities from 30 countries with direct flights. Nice Airport: www.nice.aeroport.fr

By train

Railway is a convenient way to travel to/from Monaco. All international trains stop at the train station in Monaco-Monte-Carlo or have at least a connecting train from the Principality. Web site: <http://www.monaco-gare.com>

By road

The Principality of Monaco is an independent state which is easily accessible by all of its land borders. Monaco is linked to France and other European nations by a network of highways.

The A8 highway, which connects with the European highway system, serves the Principality by means of easy access roads (Exit A8 - RN7 coming from Nice, La Turbie going to or coming from Nice, Roquebrune going to or coming from Italy). Local travel is provided by three major roads: the Low, the Middle and the Great Corniches.

Car rental or taxi

If you are in a hurry, we suggest taking the highway (autoroute). The existence of a specific and direct exit for Monaco will allow for arrival in approximately 30 minutes. If you prefer a scenic drive, take the low or middle coastal roads (known as the Basse and Moyenne Corniche). You will discover unforgettable panoramic views. (approximative rate for a taxi during the day : 90/120 euros).

By helicopter

The Principality is only 7 minutes away from the airport if you take one of the numerous daily helicopter flights. Flights from 8.45 am to 8.15 pm from Nice, and from 8.30 am to 8.00 pm from Monaco, each 30 minutes.
